

SMS Terms, Conditions, & Privacy Policy

Terms and Conditions

Nevada Public Health Foundation (NPHF) occasionally sends text messages to individuals who have given prior consent to receive updates related to our programs, trainings, scholarships, and events.

Individuals may provide consent to receive messages by:

- Participating in an NPHF program or training
- Providing their phone number and written or verbal consent to NPHF staff via email, phone, or text message

By opting in to receive SMS messages from Nevada Public Health Foundation (NPHF), you agree to the following:

- Message Types: You may receive texts about our social work workforce programs, community outreach, upcoming events, and updates related to NPHF services.
- Message Frequency: Message frequency varies depending on individual need and program involvement.
- Charges: Message and data rates may apply based on your carrier plan.
- Opt-Out: You can opt out of SMS messages at any time by replying STOP.
- Help: For help, reply HELP or contact us at info@nphf.org

Privacy Policy

Nevada Public Health Foundation (NPHF) is committed to protecting your privacy. We collect limited personal information, such as phone numbers and email addresses, only to communicate with individuals regarding our public health programs, social work scholarship and stipend opportunities, events and trainings, and outreach efforts.

What We Collect

- Contact information (e.g., phone number, email)
- Any additional information you voluntarily provide through our forms or messages

How We Use Information

- To send updates about NPHF programs and opportunities
- To respond to inquiries or support requests
- To manage participation in our social work programs

How We Protect Information

We do not sell, rent, or share your personal information with third parties. Access to your information is limited to authorized personnel only.

Opt-Out

You can opt out of SMS communication at any time by replying STOP. You may also contact us at info@nphf.org
